

A Message from Swami Tejomayananda

It was indeed a pleasant surprise for me to know that Mananam is completing twenty-five years of its existence this year. It started as a newsletter of Chinmaya Mission West and has now emerged as a book series. It is interesting to see the subtle changes that have taken place along with the passage of time. Mananam has gained a definite shape now in communicating spiritual dimension of various subjects that touch human life. Articles of many renowned spiritual masters of different traditions have enriched it and made it popular among spiritual seekers. The very fact that it is celebrating its 25th year proves its credentials.

I take this opportunity to convey my heartfelt appreciation and thanks to Rudite Emir, Vilasini Balakrishnan, and Margaret Leuverink for rendering their great services as editors of Mananam. Their teams deserve great compliments. I also thank all readers, well wishers and supporters of the series.

May God's grace and Pujya Gurudev's blessings lead Mananam to greater and greater success in spreading the message of Vedanta far and wide.

In the service of the Lord
